

We Have Your Fit

Attention is called here to the fact that Stein-Bloch have studied the fit question from all points of view, and that beside designing clothes to fit a man of so-called "regular" build, they design special sizes for the man who is normal in figure, but below the average in size; for the tall man, for the short man, for the stout man, for the thin man, for the tall or short stout man, and for the short or tall thin man.

AND THESE SIZES FIT.

JAPANESE CASE DIES

Dr. Uchida Will Not Be Pursued--Sanitary Matters.

At a full meeting of the Board of Health, except for the absence of the Attorney General, it was decided in executive session to let the matter of the Japanese physician, Dr. Uchida, quietly die. While it was agreed that the board had the right of it, it was also felt that the interests of the public had been fully conserved.

President L. E. Pinkham, Fred. C. Smith, Dr. J. R. Judd, Dr. J. T. Wayson, Mark P. Robinson and Abraham Fernandez constituted the meeting.

Reports of various officers were presented by the president, and some routine matters were considered.

"While measles is not under the U. S. Regulations a quarantinable disease," the president said in his message, "it is customary to send such cases to the hospital. It was deemed expedient to so treat the cases found among the arriving immigrants, hence the cases of measles and the families have been placed on Quarantine Island, where they can be properly cared for."

REPORT FOR OCTOBER.

The report of Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, city sanitary officer, for October is as follows:

"There were twelve complaints of nuisances reported and all were investigated and abated. Four 48-hour notices were served and had the desired effect.

"There were seven recommendations for hotel, restaurant and lodging-house licenses issued, and 429 people can be lawfully lodged in the buildings.

"There were forty-seven inspections of graves made, one being a disinterment. Three coffins were exposed in the King street Catholic cemetery, three in Kapalama cemetery, two in Kawaiahaeo cemetery and one burial in eighteen inches of water at the Waikiki cemetery.

"Permits to keep swine were issued to thirty-one, and to keep ducks, two. "A visit was made to the new Nuuanu reservoir to examine into the sanitary conditions.

"Testimony was given in the case of Tai Yick in the Circuit Court on appeal from the District Court. Defendant was found guilty and fined $100 and costs.

"During the month the following schools were examined, certificates issued and pupils vaccinated:

"The usual supervision of the scrubbing force has been carried on daily."

CHILD BEGINS LIFE WITH BANK ACCOUNT

A child was born at the immigration station on Saturday night, his mother being one of the recently arrived immigrants off the S. S. Suveric. The little one arrived under particularly distressing circumstances, being born in the yard, outside the station. The hurly-burly at the station at that time prevented the condition of the mother being known to the officials there until it was too late to carry her into the station hospital, although she received medical attention and was taken with the child into the hospital as soon as possible.

Today the little American citizen has a bank account. Despite the humble circumstances of his birth six days ago, he has now money for which he has no immediate use drawing interest and accumulating for him.

Yesterday he was christened and the name on his bank deposit book reads "Frank P. Sargent Costa." When the United States Commissioner learned after the ceremony that he had a namesake he visited one of the local savings banks and deposited a sum of money for him. When Frank P. Sargent Costa arrives at his majority he will have this sum and the accumulated interest awaiting him and at his disposal.

CAUGHT COLD WHILE HUNTING A BURGLAR.

Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanorgan, provincial Constable at Chapeau, Ontario, Canada, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles, I was completely cured." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

WEEK-END AT LIHUE

Several Social Events at the Kauai Town.

LIHUE, December 5. — Continual showery weather, and heavy roads, have not prevented social gatherings in Lihue, a number of which have occurred since Thanksgiving Day.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., gave a delightful dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, who are bidding farewell to Kauai, to make their home in Honolulu. Covers were laid for eleven. In the evening the company was entertained with music and cards. Those present, beside the host and hostess, were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Coney, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rice, and Mr. Paul Isenberg.

LOAN EXHIBIT.

On Saturday evening the regular annual Art Loan Exhibition for the benefit of the Lihue Library was held in the Social Hall. The display was very fine, and a new feature was introduced by the sale of fancy articles. The attendance was smaller than usual, but the enterprise netted $125.

The flower table was presided over by Mrs. Arthur Rice, assisted by Miss Batchelor.

Mrs. Weber had charge of the candy table, while the fancywork was conducted by Mrs. Chas. Rice.

Refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. Smythe.

Just before the close the unsold articles were disposed of at auction. Mr. Arthur Rice wielding the hammer.

This gentleman has evidently been "hiding his light under a bushel," for as an auctioneer he is "all right." His "white-washed" cakes brought forth prompt bids and good prices.

FAREWELL DINNER.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Omsted of Hotel Fairview gave a farewell dinner to the retiring host and hostess of that establishment. Fifteen congenial souls responded to the invitation and a merry time was had. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Coney, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rice, Mrs. Lansing, Misses Lansing, Jordan and Coney, and Messrs. Willard, Hayselden and Mahelona.

HOW THE SUVERIC IMMIGRANTS FARE

On Monday and Tuesday the laborers and their families left for the plantations and, so far as could be learned yesterday over a disconnected telephone line, they are satisfied with their localities. The weather has been too stormy for work and they have been busy settling themselves in their homes. It is not the policy of the plantations to put to work immediately the green hands that are sent out but rather to wait until they become acquainted with surroundings. At Ewa Plantation a number of the newcomers are unmarried but they seem satisfied with the work which they have been told is cut out for them. On Oahu plantation but two families were received and Mr. Ashley states that they are perfectly contented and will no doubt give satisfaction as laborers.

HOUSE AND SEWER INSPECTION REPORT

E. G. Keen, inspector of buildings, plumbing and house sewers, makes the following report on the work of his office for November to the president of the Board of Health:

Plans of plumbing approved and permits issued for same, 23; separate pieces of plumbing finished and accepted, 24; fixtures installed in above, 86; building permits issued, 13.

Inspections made as follows: sewer connections made, 14; nuisances investigated, 8; building sites approved, 17; buildings under construction and repairs inspected, 43; dairies inspected, 6; laundries inspected (new), 6; plumbing, 142; total, 236.

BOGUS MINING SHARES.

English Public Take a Large Block of Them.

LONDON, November 17.—By means of bogus shares in a company called the American Mining, Milling and Smelting Company, Mark Anthony Young, aged fifty-six, an engineer, and Henry Jonas, aged sixty-nine, a surveyor, succeeded in obtaining from the public all over the country many thousands of dollars. After a trial lasting nearly a week they were found guilty and Judge Rentoul passed a sentence of ten years' penal servitude on Young and eighteen months' hard labor on Jonas. He remarked that certain newspapers had assisted, whether intentionally or not he could not say, the prisoners in their operations, and should they see their way to recoup by their help some of those who had been defrauded should be glad to lay before the home secretary that circumstance from the point of view of seeing whether the sentence should be reduced or not.
